Dear Tanya,

On behalf of Trinity Western University ("University") we are pleased to offer you a student employment agreement for the casual position of Computing Science Research Assistants at Trinity Western University. You agree that you have been advised of the responsibilities for this position and will hold confidential all such proprietary information belonging to the University. The terms of the Agreement are:

Agreement Dates	Beginning 1/1/2026 and ending 4/30/2026 .
Wage Rate	$18.08 per hour. This salary level represents Class B in the TWU Student Employment Wage Guidelines effective June 1, 2025.
Deductions	As required by the Canada Revenue Agency and other applicable laws.
Vacation Pay	4% vacation pay will be added to hourly wage in semi-monthly payroll. Statutory holiday pay will be provided in compliance with the BC Employment Standards Act.
Termination of Agreement:	Both parties agree that the agreement may be terminated at any time pursuant to the BC Employment Standards Act, as amended from time to time. If the Student Employee is within their 90-day probationary period, the University can terminate the contract without cause by providing only the notice required by applicable employment standards legislation (if any). Instead of providing such notice, the University may provide pay in lieu of notice. You will not be entitled to any other notice or compensation whatsoever.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

- a. The Student Employee agrees that to remain qualified for the Student Employment program, he/she must be enrolled in a minimum of 12 semester hours (Undergraduate) or a minimum of 9 semester hours (Seminary/Graduate) during the entire length of the Employment Agreement.

The Student Employee agrees to advise their People & Culture representative if enrolment drops below the minimum.

- b. This is a short-term employment agreement. Student employment is intended to assist students in funding their education. This employment agreement will not be renewed or continued as indefinite employment if the Student Employee is re-hired in the same or any other position by TWU. Each employment assignment and agreement is a separate short-term contract, even if they are entered into consecutively or in the next academic term, irrespective of how many renewals or new contracts are entered into.
- c. While there are no guaranteed hours for any 'On Call' position, the Student Employee agrees to be scheduled for work as appropriate to the requirements, expectations and needs of the hiring department. Scheduled hours may be cancelled or changed per applicable BC Employment Standards legislation.
- d. Undergraduate Student Employees are permitted to work a maximum of 10 hours/week on campus. During these extended breaks, (Winter Break/Summer Break/Independent Study Break) Student Employees may work up to a maximum 40 Hours per week.
- e. Student Employees must have an active Social Insurance Number (SIN). International Students must apply for an SIN at Service Canada.
- f. The dates of this Student Employment Agreement are contingent on the Student Employee receiving and maintaining a valid study or work permit, if applicable.
- g. The Student Employee agrees to provide a 'void' cheque to their People & Culture representative or the Payroll Department so that his/her salary can be directly deposited to a Canadian bank account.
- h. For contracts based on an hourly wage rate, the Student Employee is required to submit their timecard online for their supervisor to review and approve on a bi-weekly basis.
- i. The Student Employee and the Supervisor agree to follow the 'Disciplinary Concerns' procedure as outlined in the Student Employee Handbook to resolve any performance related issues.
- j. The Employer agrees to keep the Student Employee's employment information of a personal or financial nature confidential except where required by law.
- k. You agree to return all Trinity Western University property (e.g. computer, cell phone) at the end of this contract per the arrangements made with your Manager.

HR POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

- a. You agree that your employment will be bound by the terms and conditions of the University's HR Policies as well as other policies that relate to employment such as the Trinity Western University's Privacy Policy, the Bullying and Harassment Policy, and the Sexualized Violence Policy. These policies may be amended from time to time through the University's policy review process.
- b. TWU is an evangelical Christian educational community. Since student employment is predominantly designed to assist in you financing your education, you are not required to sign TWU's Statement of Faith or Community Covenant. This makes your employment different from other permanent employees. However, during your employment, you are expected to show respect for the Christian faith and beliefs on which TWU is founded. Your conduct while on the job must be consistent with your obligation to show respect for the TWU's Christian beliefs and practices.

- c. The Student Employee acknowledges receiving a copy of (or access to) the current Student Employment Handbook. The Student Employee agrees to be bound the obligations of the student under the terms and conditions of the current Student Employment Handbook as may be amended from time to time found at: <https://www.twu.ca/about-us/leadership-administration/people-culture/employee-information/student-employment>.

Signatures below indicate acceptance of all the above details. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact People & Culture.
